

Candles for everyone, everywhere, anytime.

Sales report:

1. Product launch took place on October 11th 2010 and was an immediate success! The products sold out in all 31 stores in about 3 weeks!
2. Endless Candles has received many, daily emails and phone calls from customers who would like to buy more candles (since the stores sold out) and the common statement was that they so far haven't found anything similar to our product. Please take a look at our testimonials on our website in the bottom right corner (English to be updated at the moment): <http://www.endlesscandles.com/index-se.html>.
3. We have had the opportunity to add all these incoming inquires to our email database and all of these customers have agreed to receiving an email with updates on where and when the candles will be available again = free marketing for you as a customer.
4. We have also gotten inquires from retailers who would like to buy our product.
5. The stores and the stores managers carrying our product, that we were able to visit, have been very positive towards the product and what it has done to their store.
